Customer Information

Information

Originally built in 1831 as the hunting lodge and family retreat of the Duke of Sutherland, Lilleshall Hall is now better known as Lilleshall National Sports Centre. Set in spectacular and secluded surroundings four miles from Newport, Shropshire, Lilleshall is a flagship residential training centre and an award winning National Centre for Excellence for many of the UK's top sportsmen and women.

The Centre caters for an extensive range of sports at all levels and is also the base for numerous sporting organisations, including British Gymnastics, The Football Association, and the Grand National Archery Society. Visiting the Centre offers a wonderful opportunity to rub shoulders with world famous sports personalities.

Conference & Banqueting

Lilleshall is also a unique conference, banqueting and meetings venue with over 30 years experience of providing flexible, high quality hospitality and corporate services to the business sector.

The Duke of Sutherland Suite provides the perfect setting for conferences with its original features and stunning views of the grounds.
