Our Courses

Abbey View 9 hole golf course 1411 yards Par 29

All members of the public are welcome at Abbey View, which is operated on a pay and play basis and open all year round. The course was established in 1990 and has been growing ever since. Abbey View is highly regarded as a fine 9 hole golf course with some beautiful views of surrounding areas that can be seen from all areas of the course. The course is excellent for beginners or people who find it difficult to participate on our 18 hole course due to age or time restrictions.

Organised play

There is a golf society that plays here on a Tuesday and Thursday morning if you would like to play in competitions, gain a handicap or arrange a game with other members please call Abbey View on one of these days or alternatively please visit www.abbeyviewgolf.com

Batchwood Hall 18 hole golf course 6509 yards Par 71

Batchwood Hall is highly regarded as one of the finest municipal golf courses in the country. Commissioned by Samuel Ryder (founder of the Ryder cup) and designed by JH Taylor, the course layout maintains a splendid level of interest with one or two holes that can rank with the best in the country. The course is suitable for intermediate and experienced golfers and has been designed and maintained to provide a good challenge of golf at value for money prices.

Organised play

There is a golf club that plays here on Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays so if you would like to play in competitions, gain a handicap or arrange a game with other members please call 01727 833349 on one of these days or alternatively please email secretary@batchwoodhallgc.com www.batchwoodhallgc.com
